BIOGRAPHY

I would like to take a minute of your time to introduce myself. My name is Dan Duffy and since 2009 I have served as Illinois State Senator from the 26th District.

I grew up on the south side of Chicago, the youngest of eleven children. I went to school at Augustana College in Rock Island, Illinois, and moved to the northwest suburbs after graduation. It was here that I started my first small business – a computer consulting company – and have been a small-business owner for the past 20 years.

Illinois is facing some serious financial challenges. Our state has the largest pension burden in America and the lowest credit ratings. Our state's legislative leaders, led by Speaker Michael Madigan, refuse to address the disastrous policies that are damaging our state. Due to their inaction, the unfunded pension liability is growing every day.

- Married to Kris Duffy for 20 years
